CHRISTMAS EVE

Christmas Eve is a joyous time for all who open their hearts and minds to our loving Creator. Let us allow the true meaning of Christmas to stir up love within us. During the service today, we will be serving communion. Please know that all are invited to participate in Holy Communion.

Thank you for worshipping with us today. If you are a guest, we invite you to take a moment to complete a visitor's card located in the back of the pew in front of you and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. We also invite you to sign your name in our guest book located in the back entrance of the sanctuary.

We welcome infants and children and all their wiggles & voices in our worship! For your comfort, we also have a children's corner in the back of the sanctuary where your child can relax and play and you can still participate in the worship experience. We pray God's blessing upon you. For today's service, we will be using the red & black hymnals.

INVITATION TO GENEROSITY & DISCIPLESHIP

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION⁵

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION⁴

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

L: Gathering around the table as we celebrate new life borning, we remember so many stories shared around tables; tables where bread is broken and cup is poured out, where families gather and generations share, where stories are remembered, refined, reshaped.

(The Congregation is invited to sing in response)

C: Gloria, gloria, in excelsis deo! Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!

L: Gathering around the table on this holy night, we remember the story of the sacred daring to share our life, the story of the holy donning human flesh and dwelling among us, a story that is at once both ethereal and earthly. The story of how this baby, Christ, Emmanuel grew and shared a meal—In the night in which he was betrayed our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: ‘Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.’ Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: ‘This cup is new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.’

C: Gloria, gloria, in excelsis deo! Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!

L: Gathering around the table on this Christmas night, we break the bread and remember the paradox that it is in our brokenness that we become whole; we fill this cup and remember the abundance discovered in each new sharing of our sacred stories.

C: Gloria, gloria, in excelsis deo! Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!

L: Together, around the table, we pray: Come, holy Spirit, come. Bless this bread and bless this fruit of the vine. Bless all of us in our eating and drinking that our eyes might be opened, that we might recognize the Spirit rising in our midst indeed, in one another. Come, holy Spirit, come.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(sung to the tune of Away in a Manger)

L: And just as we remember the story of the Christ child around the table—we together remember and sing the prayer he gifted to us:

ALL: Our Father in heaven, all praise to Your name! Your kingdom among us, your will done the same By mortals and angels, Come, Lord, reign alone; Oh hear us and bless us from heaven's high throne.

The bread that we yearn for provide us each day; As we forgive others, our sins take away; In times of temptation, to lead us be near; From evil deliver Your children most dear.

For Yours is the kingdom; o'er all things Your reign. And Yours is the power; all things You maintain. To You be the glory, resounding again from all of creation, forever! Amen.

SHARING OF THE ELEMENTS

At Mt. Zion all are welcome to share in Christ's meal. Today, Communion will be distributed by our Welcome Team members and passed down the pews for distribution —first bread, then the cup which is filled with grape juice. Gluten Free wafers are available as desired. We invite you to hold your bread and cup until the community is invited to eat together by the Pastor. Please dispose of your cup after worship.

During the sharing of the elements, we will be singing various Christmas Carols. Words for the songs will be listed on the screens. The hymnal numbers are also listed below if you'd prefer to use a hymnal.

*O Little Town of Bethlehem, #102 (red hymnal)
The First Noel, #118 (red hymnal)
Hark the Herald Angels Sing, #108 (red hymnal)
What Child is This, #148 (black hymnal)

It Came Upon a Midnight Clear, #107 (red hymnal)*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

P: We give you thanks, O God, that in this bread and cup of Christ's very life, you give us food for our journey. As you led the shepherds to the stable, guide us on the way unfolding before us. Wherever we go, may our lives proclaim good news of great joy in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SOPRANO SOLO (sung by Debbie Butcher)

O Holy Night

by Adam

PASSING THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

L: Here, in the stable, on this holy night, there is hope—

C: For God loves us too much to leave us just as we are.

L: In the stable, there is peace—

C: For all that separates us from God falls away.

L: In the stable, there is joy—

C: For God created music, and Christmas cookies, and laughter that is contagious and babies that love peek-a-boo; and if those things have God's fingerprints, then God surely exudes joy.

L: In the stable, there is love—

C: Because God is love, from start to finish, and that love exists for us all.

L: And in the center of our hope—in the center of our peace—in the center of our joy—in the center of our love—is Emmanuel- who came to this earth to dwell among us. Who invites each and every one of us to be at home with Him. Who brings God's home to us—in a stable in Bethlehem—and here and now.

C: So tonight we share God's light, for God's love just could not stay home. Amen.

Our Welcome Team members will distribute Christ's light to the ends of the aisle. When passing Christ's light, we ask that lit candles stand tall and steady while unlit candles tip to receive the light.

 A CHRISTMAS BLESSING⁶

L: It has been done! The News has been shared!

C: A young maiden will bear a child, and she will call him Jesus.

L: But that is the beginning of the story, a story that has not yet ended.

C: A story that includes us, a story of which we are a part.

L: So, we go out to live the story, to tell of the Hope that is being born among us this Christmas,

C: to share the Love of the season with the world, to be agents of Peace in times of trouble, to sing songs of deep and abiding Joy.

L: As you go, may God go with you, challenging you to respond to God's Call in ways that are new, unexpected and deeply needed. Go forth from the stable—and share the Good News. Amen.
