Graduate Hospitality Table

Following the service

Graduate recognition is coming up quickly on June 21st! We will honor our high school graduates during that service, and there will be a special hospitality table afterwards to celebrate their accomplishments. We will also have an insert in the bulletin with information about our high school grads and all of our Graduates in college and beyond. We have a special card for our graduates that you will be able to sign on the 21st. If you are unable to be in worship with us on the 21st, please stop by the church office and sign the card for our grads.
